6th form dress code

Haileybury Astana's objective in establishing a smart dress code for the Sixth Form is to enable our students to project a high standard in keeping with the needs of our school.

The following dress code must be followed in the Sixth Form:

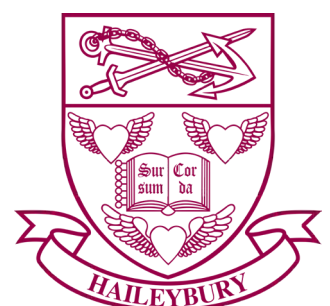

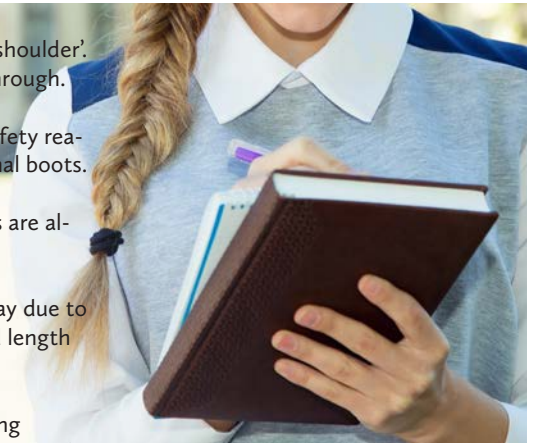

Boys

- Shirt – Formal – plain, or with discreet stripe
- House tie
- Pullover - V neck: navy blue, black or grey, in a plain, smart style
- Suit - navy blue, black or grey, of conventional style and plain design or with a discreet stripe. Jackets must be worn around the school and may be taken off in the classrooms and at lunch.
- Shoes - black or brown leather - plain style, with a heel between 1 and 2 cm. Trainers are not allowed.
- Socks - plain: navy blue, black, grey or brown.
- Coat - navy blue, black or grey, without slogans or logos.
- Boys are expected to be clean shaven or a groomed beard. Hair must be clean and tidy and of reasonable length above the collar.
- Jewellery is not permitted. A wrist watch is allowed.

Girls

- Suit (trousers or skirt) - navy blue, black or grey - in plain design. The jacket must be worn with an appropriate top, plain tights and shoes. Jackets must be worn around the school and can be taken off in the classrooms and at lunch.
- Skirt/trousers - navy blue, black or grey – in a smart, conventional style. Skirts should be no shorter than the top of the knee.
- Collared, conventional blouse – white, cream, or light blue – not low cut or 'off the shoulder'. It is inappropriate for blouses to be low cut or too short. Blouses should not be see-through.
- Smart pullover/cardigan (optional) - navy blue, black or grey – in a plain design.
- Shoes – navy, grey, black or brown leather - plain style, low-heeled for health and safety reasons. Shoes without backs are not permitted. No Ugg-style, casual or non-conventional boots. Ankle boots may only be worn with trousers.
- Tights – plain navy blue, black, brown, flesh, or grey. No leggings or patterned tights are allowed.
- Coat - navy blue, black, or grey, with no logos/slogans.
- Hair must be clean and tidy. Girls must wear long hair tied back during the school day due to health and safety. A smart, conventional appearance is expected in both the style and length of hair.
- Make-up is permitted as long as it is subtle and delicate.
- Jewellery is permitted, with these limitations: only one fine chain with a small hanging pendant; one pair of small ear studs in the ear lobes; one wrist watch; one simple ring. Dangly earrings and facial jewellery/piercings are not acceptable.
- Casual clothes such as denim jackets, jeans and T-shirts are not acceptable. Girls must not wear exceptionally short, tight skirts in stretch material, or tight trousers.
